
Rory Galter, CPA
Assistant City Auditor III

Rory Galter joined the Office of the City Auditor in November 2015 and works on various types of engagements, including the performance audit of the oversight of City of Dallas' business partners.

Mr. Galter has over 37 years of audit and financial management experience. He has 19 years in internal and external audit roles in a number of industries including banking, retail, healthcare, and government. His 18 years of financial management experience was spent primarily establishing the financial functions for start-up companies in the government contracting, healthcare, and restaurant industries.

Mr. Galter has a Masters of Business Administration from the University of Wisconsin at Madison and a Bachelors of Science in Business of Administration from Ohio State University, where he graduated Summa Cum Laude. He is a licensed Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and won a Certificate of Distinction in the Elijah Watts Sells Competition for the November 1978 Uniform Certified Public Accountant Examination.