

Daniel Genz

Assistant City Auditor II

Daniel Genz joined the Office of the City Auditor in August 2014 with government accountability and journalism experience. He conducts performance audits and attestation engagements.

Mr. Genz previously worked as an auditor, writer, and performance analyst for Washington State's auditing and transportation agencies. He contributed to the Washington State Auditor's Office Local Government Performance Center, which won a 2014 National State Auditors Association award for special projects. He started his career as a reporter for newspapers in Waco, Texas and Washington, D.C.

Mr. Genz earned a Masters in Journalism from the University of Maryland, a Bachelors in English from Tulane University, and a Green Belt in Lean Six Sigma from the University of Washington, Tacoma. He currently serves on the Communications Committee for the Association of Local Government Auditors (ALGA) and is a member of the Association of Government Accountants (AGA).