

Robert Rubel, CPA, CIA, CISA Assistant City Auditor IV

Robert Rubel has been with the Office of the City Auditor since February 2013 and currently serves as an Assistant City Auditor IV. He has conducted performance audits of the City of Dallas' self-insured medical program, payroll processes related to retirement programs, and paving and maintenance program / capital program of streets and thoroughfares. Mr. Rubel has also had responsibility of special audits of former City Council members, the former City Manager, and the former City Attorney.

Mr. Rubel worked for five years in the oil and gas industry in Dallas, Texas. He also served in the Texas State Auditor's Office performing A-133 Federal Compliance and Financial Statement Audits for the State of Texas. In 1992, he accepted the position of Assistant Director in the internal audit department at University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center. He was promoted to Chief Audit Executive in 1997 and retired from the position in 2013.

Mr. Rubel graduated from University of Texas, Arlington in 1982 with a Bachelors of Business Administration in Accounting, and he completed his Masters of Business Administration from the University of Texas at Dallas in December 2013. He is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA), a Certified Internal Auditor (CIA), and a Certified Information Systems Auditor (CISA).