Annual “MayFair” set for May 26 Older Americans Month Celebration

Dallas – “MayFair” is an annual celebration held in May to acknowledge the contributions of senior citizens during Older Americans Month. “MayFair” features lunch, music, dancing, information booths, an awards ceremony, door prizes and much more.

The City of Dallas Senior Affairs Commission and Friends of Senior Affairs have partnered to host the annual event on May 26, at the Hyatt Regency Hotel, 300 Reunion Boulevard. Awards will be presented for community service accomplishments and to employers for hiring and retaining older workers.

The exhibit area will be ready for visitors at 9 a.m. on the first floor lobby. Approximately fifty exhibitors will set-up informational booths on services and products of interest to senior citizens.

The Landmark Ballroom doors will open at 11 a.m., with the program commencing at 11:15 a.m. All activities will conclude at 3 p.m.

Camille Keith, vice-president of Marketing for Southwest Airlines, will provide the keynote address. Ms. Keith is well known for her work regarding seniors’ interests. Gloria Campos, WFAA Channel 8 anchorwoman, will serve as mistress of ceremonies for the event. Music will be provided by nationally renowned Jack Melick and his orchestra.

Interested persons still have an opportunity to attend “MayFair.” Tickets for the event are $15, to purchase tickets, or for additional information, contact Vicki Smith at 214-670-4894. Sponsorship opportunities are also available. For additional details contact Constance Smith at 214-670-5709.
