Target Population

Services should be delivered to low and moderate income residents of the Service Area, in compliance with ARPA SLFRF regulations.

Section 2: Program Guidance

Eligible Participants

Clients served should be low to moderate income, defined for this project as 65% area median income (AMI) or below. For APRA programming, low income is considered 40% AMI and below according to HUD guidelines or at or below 185% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines for the size of its household based on the most recently published poverty guidelines by the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS), while moderate income is considered 65% AMI and below according to HUD or 300% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines for the size of the household according to DHHS. Services may be delivered in other locations, but all clients served must be low income and should generally target those in the lower income categories, such as Very Low Income and Extremely Low (see Attachment G or consult publicly available data online).

Generally, Applicants should target service delivery in locations that are accessible or within communities in which poverty is concentrated, in communities heavily impacted by the COVID 19 pandemic, in communities in which there are concentrations of the targeted populations, and/or in Qualifying Census Tracts.

Additionally, service delivery should strive to align with documented areas of need based on the service category. For example, funding to support outdoor activity spaces should be focused on areas with limited access to such services or in need of updates. Applicants should articulate this in their program application submission.

Eligibility can be assessed on an individual/client basis for most programming. Certain types of programming may be able to offer services within Qualifying Census Tracts in lieu of individual client eligibility.

Additionally, subrecipient may choose to target populations identified by the Treasury as among those eligible to be considered to be disproportionately impacted by the pandemic. This includes low-income households and communities, households residing in QCTs, and households that qualify for certain federal benefits, including:

- Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF)
- Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)
- Free and Reduced-Price Lunch (NSLP) and/or School Breakfast (SBP) programs
- Medicare Part D Low-income Subsidies
- Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- Head Start and/or Early Head Start
- Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC)
- Section 8 Vouchers
- Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP)
- Pell Grants

Qualifying Census Tracts

Certain services, such as location-based programs, distribution or outreach, and educational sessions may be delivered in Qualifying Census Tracts without documenting eligibility of each individual participant. For example, the activity of distributing educational materials or large educational or outreach event may be able to be administered within a QCT and is not required to document the eligibility of any individual receiving those materials. See Attachment B for information on QCTs.

Client Eligibility Documentation

Programs that provide significant services to a direct beneficiary, or client, should expect to document eligibility for each client. These programs might include training courses provided to an enrolled group of individuals, leadership development trainings, housing assistance, etc.

The Subrecipient will be required to document eligibility for each client served. Eligibility documentation should include income direct or indirect COVID 19 impact as appropriate based on the service category, and appropriate documentation of inclusion within the target populations set forth by the Applicant where applicable. Additionally, Applicants should include support that the participants would likely be otherwise unable to access necessary services without the support of the program, including things such as public program wait lists, lack of mental health insurance coverage, etc. Finally, Applicants should outline how their service delivery integrates within the local mental and behavioral health ecosystem, including demonstration of available appropriate referral partners to support varied client needs.

Eligible Expenditures

Persons Served

Organizations are required to collect and maintain documentation for all clients served. For investments in equipment or facilities, organizations will be expected to reasonably articulate the individuals that are expected to benefit from the investments, and should track, upon purchase or completion, resident use for reporting purposes.

Public Purpose

On August 24, 2022, Dallas City Council authorized a contract with Texas Parks and Wildlife Department to administer American Rescue Plan Act funds – State and Local Fiscal Recovery Fund funding. Funding is to be used for housing and workforce development, parks and trails, libraries and cultural centers, and health and physical development. The City recognizes the role that Representative Yvonne Davis played in securing this grant funding and is partnering with the Representative in administration of funds.

Eligible Expenses

Generally, funding can be used to support costs to delivery eligible services to eligible participants. Applicants should review the information presented in the Attachment D - ARPA SLFRF Guidance for Subrecipients on Compliance and Reporting for more information related to eligible expenditures. While all aspects of the guidance are importance, due to the nature of this NOFA the City recommends that applicants note in particular the language related to Equipment and Real Property Management and be familiar with federal regulations related to compliance and reporting requirements for equipment purchases, as well as language related to administrative and indirect allocations.

A selected Applicant that receives an award will be required to sign a subrecipient agreement, approved as to form by the City Attorney, in a form substantially similar to the attached, and both a Federal and State Requirements Addendum to ensure compliance with the above-referenced regulations and requirements under the TPWD grant agreement, applicable federal and state grant regulations, and local law (Sample subrecipient agreement and state and federal grant addendums are attached as Exhibit 5).

If the City receives an information request related to Subrecipient or this Agreement, the City shall make a good faith attempt to notify Subrecipient of the request in accordance with the TPIA, and Subrecipient may seek a decision from the OAG that the information is protected from required disclosure. The Parties acknowledge that to object to the release of records, Subrecipient must submit a letter brief to the OAG explaining why the claimed exceptions apply to the information. The City shall not be obligated to submit a letter brief supporting those claimed exceptions; instead, Subrecipient shall be solely responsible for submitting the brief that the information is protected from disclosure, and providing a copy of the documents to the OAG. If the OAG issues a determination indicating that all or part of the information must be disclosed, the City shall disclose the information unless Subrecipient notifies the City that it has timely filed or intervened in a suit against the OAG in accordance with TPIA. Nothing in this Agreement shall require the City to fund, reimburse, institute or participate in any litigation relating to an information request. Subrecipient agrees to comply with the TPIA, a subpoena, court order, search warrant, or other legal process. Subrecipient acknowledges that the City cannot guarantee that any information it receives will be kept confidential, and this Agreement is not a basis to withhold information from required disclosure under the TPIA, a subpoena, court order, search warrant, or other legal process.
