

Avery Moore
Assistant Chief
Dallas Police Department

Assistant Chief Moore is a 30-year veteran of the Dallas Police Department and oversees the Investigations and Tactical Branch, with approximately 865 sworn detectives and civilian support staff with an estimated $127M budget. This branch is one of the Dallas Police Department's three support branches and consists of the Investigations Bureau, Tactical Bureau, Homicide Unit, Explosive Ordinance Division, and the Love Field (Airport) Unit.

Previously, Assistant Chief Moore was the deputy chief over the East Patrol Division leading approximately 640 sworn and civilian personnel in one of Dallas' most culturally diverse area. In his career Moore has held positions in the police academy, SWAT, patrol, and support services. Assistant Chief Moore indicated they had improved homicide clearance rate by 22%, maintaining a 78% - 81% cleared rate. Assistant Chief Moore also created the Violent Crime Reduction Team (VCRT) and the Domestic Violence Warrant Squad. He earned a B.A. in Criminal Justice and an MBA from the University of Phoenix in Dallas. Assistant Chief Moore attended the FBI National Academy in Quantico, VA and Caruth Police Institute Executive Leadership Series - 7th Session. Assistant Chief Moore is a Use of Force Expert.