

Good afternoon,

I hope you and yours are safe and well. I want to take a moment to congratulate all of our graduates. Graduation, be it high school, college or post-graduate, is a huge accomplishment. I hope you find ways to celebrate your success and you know that the whole community is proud of you. I'm sorry many of you will not have the graduation you envisioned, but I know your friends, families and educators will find a way to make this time special for you.

As we transition from shelter in place to safer at home, please keep in mind that the City, County and State are all in agreement that outside of visiting essential and re-opened businesses, you should continue to avoid gathering in large groups or with people you do not live with. They also recommend wearing a mask in public and continuing to maintain a 6 foot distance between you and other people. Please use good judgement and avoid trails, walkways or other public spaces where appropriate social distancing is not possible. While we have begun the process of contact tracing and are working diligently to increase testing, we still do not have enough tests to determine everyone who is a carrier.

Additionally, the County has created a new color system to help people determine when it is safe to resume certain activities. This is updated daily based on the data they have collected. Please see all information here.

Through all of this, the United States Census continues. Currently, 57.5% of households in District 13 have completed the Census which means we are still missing approximately 18,000 households. I encourage you, your friends and family to fill out the census. Every single person counts. This determines our representation in the House of Representatives and is used to allocate federal funding for programs like Medicaid, Head Start and SNAP benefits. One third of children in Dallas County are food insecure and programs like SNAP give them access to much needed food. Additionally, Texas has the highest uninsured rate in the country, including uninsured children. Programs like Medicaid give low income families access to quality healthcare and decrease the burden of unpaid medical expenses on hospitals and medical providers. Completing the Census has never been easier. It can be done online - CLICK HERE TO COMPLETE THE CENSUS.

At the Mayor's direction I'm continuing work as the liaison with the hospital system and COVID model researchers. The City has engaged Dr. Tim Bray with the University of Texas at Dallas Institute for Urban Policy Research who is working with other regional hospital, university, and educational public health groups to provide modeling to inform our public policy decisions and your personal decisions. The University of Texas at Dallas has made this modeling information a data dashboard available on this public website to support this work. The City of Dallas COVID data website is also has great information available here.

Finally, I invite any family who was impacted by the tornado in October and lost trees to join our virtual town hall with the Texas Trees Foundation on Thursday, May 21st at 5:30pm. We will discuss best practices to replace your lost trees and you may have the opportunity to win a free tree. I have also been working with Councilmember Kleinman to re-purpose some of the City of Dallas Reforestation fund to provide trees to residents who lost them due to natural disasters like the October tornado. This is still in the preliminary stages. I will continue to update you as this progresses. To sign up for our town hall on Thursday, please click here.

My office will continue to send out updates as they are needed. As always, please reach out if we can be of service. We are here for you.

Testing Site Updates

Several new testing sites have opened up over the past few weeks. Additionally, the City of Dallas approved funding for mobile testing sites to help those who do not have access to a vehicle get tested. These mobile sites begin operating today. For a full list of all testing sites, please visit this website.

It was announced earlier this week that the federal government has extended the operation of the Ellis Field House and American Airlines community testing sites through June.

Park Department Plans to Restore Some City Services

Yesterday the Ad Hoc Committee on COVID-19 Human and Social Recovery and Assistance was briefed by the Parks Department on their phased plan to restore some City services. Find the full presentation here.

Bulk and Brush Trash Update

Due to significantly higher than normal set outs brush and bulk trash is delayed up to 2 weeks. Sanitation has hired additional contract crews, and all crews are working 6 days a week.

Updated Data from the City

As of 10:00am May 14, 2020, Dallas County Health and Human Services is reporting 235 additional positive cases of 2019 novel coronavirus (COVID-19), bringing the total case count in Dallas County to 6,837, including 159 deaths.

The additional 6 deaths are being reported today include:

- A man in his 50's who was a resident of the City of Dallas and had been critically ill in an area hospital.
- A woman in her 60's who was a resident of the City of Dallas and had been critically ill in an area hospital.
- A man in his 60's who was a resident of the City of Dallas and had been hospitalized.
- A man in his 60's who was a resident of the City of Dallas and had been critically ill in an area hospital.
- A man in his 90's who was a resident of the City of Dallas and had been critically ill in an area hospital.
- A man in his 90's who was a resident of a long-term care facility in the City of Dallas.

Of cases requiring hospitalization who reported employment, over 80% have been critical infrastructure workers, with a broad range of affected occupational sectors, including: healthcare, transportation, food and agriculture, public works, finance, communications, clergy, first responders and other essential functions. Of cases requiring hospitalization, two-thirds have been under 65 years of age, and about half do not have high-risk chronic health conditions. Diabetes has been an underlying high-risk health condition reported in about a third of all hospitalized patients with COVID-19. Of the 159 total deaths reported to date, over a third have been associated with long-term care facilities.

Please see attached summary released Tuesday, May 12th. A summary of cases by ethnicity may be found here and case reports broken down by City may be found here.

Information on Applying for Unemployment

Individuals who have lost their job or wages due to the COVID-19 pandemic may apply for unemployment benefits by calling the Texas Workforce Commission's Unemployment Benefit Claim Self-Service at 800-939-6631 or by applying online at ui.texasworkforce.org.

Due to the unusual high volume of Texans filing unemployment claims, TWC is in the process of expanding the number of call centers to meet the need. Individuals are requested to stagger their calls and access to the online portal based on the applicant's area code. Following are the recommended call and access times.

NAVIGATING UNEMPLOYMENT:

HOW TO APPLY FOR BENEFITS AFTER LOSING YOUR JOB DUE TO COVID-19

Texans who find themselves unemployed as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic are eligible to apply for unemployment benefits and manage their claims through the Texas Workforce Commission (TWC).

WHEN TO APPLY:

TWC is currently experiencing a massive increase in call volumes and hold times on their Tele-Center phone lines and online web application. To help prevent website outages and ensure every applicant is able to file their unemployment benefits claims, TWC is asking Texans to apply during designated times and days, based on the number their area code begins with.

If your area code begins with 9, file claims on:

Monday, Wednesday and Friday
8:00 AM - 12:00 PM.

If your area code begins with 7 or 8:

Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday
8:00 AM - 12:00 PM.

If your area code begins with 3, 4, 5 or 6:

Monday, Wednesday and Friday
1:00 PM - 5:00 PM.

If your area code begins with 2:

Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday

UT School of Law Launches Website with Financial Assistance Resources The Entrepreneurship and Community Development Clinic at The University of Texas School of Law has launched a new website that tracks housing policies adopted by the federal government, State of Texas, and local jurisdictions to help Texas residents stay in their homes during the COVID-19 pandemic and accompanying financial crisis. The site covers renter protections, foreclosure protections, and utility access protections. <http://sites.utexas.edu/covid19relief/>

Increased Coyote Sightings in Residential Neighborhoods

As we shelter in place longer, coyotes will be seen more frequently in residential neighborhoods as they scavenge for food where they can find it. This is a nationwide trend, so please don't be alarmed. Please access this helpful guide to enable us to co-habitat peacefully. Please note unless they are deemed unhealthy or aggressive, animal services Dallas Animal Services will not remove them. If you see an aggressive coyote, report it through 3-1-1.

COVID-19 Convalescent Plasma Donations

UTSW has created a site to screen candidates to donate plasma from select individuals who have fully recovered from COVID-19. The plasma is for possible "emergency use" therapy for select critically ill COVID-19 positive patients. COVID-19 has not been around long enough for scientists to have definitively studied the effectiveness of convalescent plasma for its treatment. But the FDA has recently allowed for "emergency use" of COVID-19 convalescent plasma as an investigational therapy. Information is available here.

Grants Available for Non-Profits Who Support COVID-19 Response

North Texas Cares is a funder collaborative made up of North Texas foundations and United Ways that have come together to provide support for organizations that work with people and communities who may be most negatively affected by COVID-19. Applications from nonprofits are now being accepted on a rolling basis and will be evaluated weekly. Funding decisions will be made by each participating funder independently throughout the crisis period to facilitate the urgent need for funding in light of evolving community need. Approved requests may be funded both by individual funders as well as collectively, depending on the need. Funds will be donated directly to the grant recipients. Timelines vary by funder.
