SERVICE
FIRST,
NOW!

A NATIONAL SEARCH
is underway for a new Chief of Police

Dallas, Texas

CHIEF OF POLICE

DALLAS, TX

THE 01. OPPORTUNITY

City of Dallas

SERVICE
FIRST,
NOW!

A national search is underway to attract an exceptionally well-qualified candidate to lead the Dallas Police Department (DPD).

This is a remarkable opportunity to oversee one of the nation's premier law enforcement agencies, which has achieved a sustained reduction in violent crime over the past several years. Dallas is the only large U.S. city to achieve such a milestone, reflecting its commitment to becoming the safest large city in America—a goal that is well within reach. As the ninth-largest and one of the fastest-growing cities in the country, Dallas offers unique challenges and opportunities in public safety and urban policing.

The next Chief of Police will build on the department's recent successes while navigating the complexities of a diverse and dynamic city. The ideal candidate will bring proven expertise in innovative crime reduction strategies, community engagement, and organizational leadership. They will be an engaging, transparent, and forward-thinking leader with a vision to guide DPD in maintaining public safety and fostering trust with the city's vibrant and growing population. This is a critical moment for Dallas, and the next Chief will play a pivotal role in shaping its future.

02. THE CITY OF DALLAS

The City of Dallas operates under a Council-Manager form of government with a Mayor and 14 City Council Members serving as district representatives.

Under this form of government, the elected body sets policies for the operations of the City. The City Manager is appointed by the Mayor and City Council to serve as the chief administrator over the City government organization. The City Manager has an Executive Leadership Team, which consists of eight Assistant City Managers, one of whom is the Chief of Public Safety. The City of Dallas is a fullservice organization composed of more than 35+ departments/offices, including Police, Fire-Rescue, and the Office of Community Police Oversight.

The City Manager oversees all departments and functions of the City except those of City Attorney, City Secretary, City Auditor, Inspector General, and Judiciary, each of whom reports directly to the City Council. In addition, the Park and Recreation Department report to a board that is appointed by the City Council. Dallas has an FY 2024-25 operating budget of $4.97 billion and a $912.2 million capital budget. The City currently employs a staff of more than 13,000 full-time employees.

03. THE COMMUNITY

The vibrant spirit of Dallas, combined with its authentic Texas charm, offers a world-class experience. As the ninth-largest city in the United States and the third largest in Texas, Dallas is home to more than 1.3 million residents. The Dallas-Fort Worth-Arlington metropolitan area, commonly known as the DFW Metroplex, encompasses 200 cities and a population exceeding 8.1 million, making it the No. 1 visitor and leisure destination in Texas.

The community takes pride in its diverse neighborhoods, attracting residents seeking both urban and affordable living. With a range of events and activities, Dallas offers something for everyone, from tourists to long-time area residents. The Dallas region is home to seven major sports franchises: the Dallas Cowboys (NFL), Dallas Stars (NHL), Dallas Mavericks (NBA), Dallas Wings (WNBA), FC Dallas (MLS), Trinity FC (USL), and the Texas Rangers (MLB). The Dallas Arts District is the largest in the U.S., and Fair Park hosts the country's largest state fair, which both add to the city's cultural vibrancy.

Dallas is a hub for business, hosting the fourth largest concentration of Fortune 500 companies in the nation. The greater DFW area boasts the third largest economy in the United States and, if it were a country, would rank 23rd in the world. The city's economy thrives on industries such as banking, energy, telecommunications, technology, commerce, healthcare, medical research, and transportation and logistics. Supporting both business and tourism, DFW International Airport is the 3rd busiest airport in the world.

Dallas has a robust educational system with 240 public schools and nearly 140 private primary and secondary schools. The region is also home to more than 70 higher education institutions, including the University of Texas Southwestern Medical School, Southern Methodist University, the University of North Texas, Texas Christian University, and the University of Texas at Arlington.

As one of the most ethnically diverse major cities in the U.S., Dallas' population comprises 42% Hispanic or Latino, 23% African American, 5% Asian, and 28% Caucasian residents. Additionally, Dallas is recognized for having the US's eighth largest LGBTQ+ community in the country.

THE VALUES OF SERVICE

The City of Dallas is building a Service First, with the Urgency of Now! culture that is guided by the principles of Connect, Collaborate and Communicate and the core values of Empathy, Ethics, Excellence, Equity, and Engagement:

Empathy - We demonstrate compassion by listening and understanding.

Ethics - We believe in being transparent, open and honest.

Excellence - We are committed to continuous improvement.

Equity - We understand the diverse needs of the community we serve.

Engagement - We build trust through collaboration and communication.

IDEAL CANDIDATE

05.

The ideal candidate will have demonstrated experience building a culture of continuous improvement and accountability. They will be forward-thinking, focused, and driven to ensure department policies and actions align with contemporary best policing practices in policing. The Chief will represent continued progress toward enhanced public safety service delivery to all neighborhoods.

The Department currently faces a significant staffing shortage, as police officer retention is a major challenge. The recruiting and hiring practices of the new Chief of Police will shape DPD for generations to come. The new Chief will need to find innovative ways to recruit new employees that are more representative of the community, while providing meaningful opportunities and challenging work for existing staff.

STRATEGIC

The incoming Chief will evaluate the department's operations and ensure the organizational model delivers services efficiently. The selected candidate is expected to promptly identify and address issues, working collaboratively with the City Leadership, elected officials, community stakeholders, and, when appropriate, various Police Associations. The ideal candidate will enhance the department's capacity to advance community policing and crime reduction strategies, and emphasizing accountability and transparency from command-level to rank and file.

INSPIRATIONAL

The Chief of Police will be both an inspirational leader and an experienced executive who inspires confidence and trust within the community and earns the respect of both sworn and civilian employees. The top candidate will be compassionate, respectful, honest, and ethical. Building strong and genuine connections with an engaged community and department is essential for success in this position.

ENGAGING

The new Chief of Police will possess the conviction and courage to proactively address challenges and make difficult decisions while advocating for both the department and the community. The Chief will maintain transparency in communications, valuing trust from the department and community over political image. They will embody openness and expect the same from their command staff. As a stabilizing force in the department, the Chief's composure will foster trust at all levels.

VISIONARY

The ideal candidate will lead the department through the finalization of the design, construction, and opening of the new Regional Law Enforcement Training Center at the University of North Texas at Dallas. This state-of-the-art facility, slated for completion in 2027, will solidify the Dallas Police Department as a regional and national leader in law enforcement training.

06 QUALIFYING CRITERIA

EXPERIENCE

Candidates must have at least five years of command-level experience in a large municipal police department. A proven track record of leading meaningful reforms and working effectively within culturally and ethnically diverse communities is essential. Candidates must also demonstrate the ability to build department morale and engage effectively with media, community stakeholders, and elected officials. Experience should also include developing and implementing innovative crime reduction and community policing strategies.

EDUCATION

A bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university with major course work in criminal justice, law, public administration, political science, or a related field is required. A Master's degree in public administration or a related field is highly desirable. Advanced training such as the FBI National Executive Institute, FBI National Academy, Southern Police Institute or the Senior Management Institute for Police (SMIP) is considered a plus.

07. COMPENSATION & BENEFITS

The compensation for this at-will position is competitive, with a range of $290,000 to $325,000, and will be determined based on the selected candidate's qualifications. Additionally, Texas does not impose a state income tax, offering a financial advantage to employees. The compensation package is further enhanced by a comprehensive benefits plan.

NOMINATION AND APPLICATION PROCEDURES

08.

APPLY TODAY!

Candidates should understand the public nature of executive searches in the State of Texas. This recruitment incorporates existing rules and regulations that govern public sector recruitments. Information submitted for consideration may be subject to public disclosure under open record laws.

This position will remain “open” until a final selection is made. For optimal consideration, candidates are encouraged to apply early as the first review of candidates will occur on February 28, 2025. Electronic submittals are strongly encouraged and will be accepted at apply@publicsectorsearch.com.

Submissions should include a compelling cover letter, a comprehensive resume, and a list of references. Only the most highly qualified candidates will be invited to participate in the selection process, which is expected to begin in mid-March 2025.

Once a selection is made, an offer will follow, contingent upon the successful completion of the City’s hiring process. The new Chief of Police is expected to assume their duties in April 2025 or on a mutually agreed-upon date.
