Subject: Dallas Fire-Rescue (DFR) Assistance to Neighboring Communities

As you are all aware, a volatile weather system moved into the North Texas region on Saturday, December 26, 2015. These strong/severe thunderstorms produced an unstable atmosphere resulting in the formation of several tornados. Although the City of Dallas didn't suffer catastrophic damage during this unfortunate event, Dallas Fire-Rescue provided resources and emergency response expertise to several neighboring communities including Garland, Glenn Heights, Rowlett and Sunnyvale. The provided assistance was within the scope of existing mutual aid agreements and consistent with all standard operating procedures.

Several members of the department were affected by the storms personally; therefore DFR Chaplain Services has been tasked with coordinating assistance through any and all means available.

Chief Bright will be available to answer any additional questions you may have.

WHEREAS, on August 10, 1992, the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas permanently enjoined the city from enforcing the juvenile curfew ordinance; on November 19, 1993, the United States Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals overturned the district court’s decision and upheld the city’s ordinance as constitutional; and in April 1994, the United States Supreme Court declined to review the Fifth Circuit’s decision; and

WHEREAS, on May 1, 1994, the city began initial enforcement of the juvenile curfew ordinance; and

WHEREAS, Section 370.002 of the Texas Local Government Code requires that, before the third anniversary of the adoption of a juvenile curfew ordinance and every third year thereafter, the governing body of a home rule city must review the ordinance's effects on the community and on the problems the ordinance was intended to remedy, conduct public hearings on the need to continue the ordinance, and abolish, continue, or modify the ordinance, or else the ordinance will automatically expire; and
