

Memorandum

CITY OF DALLAS

DATE October 16, 2025

TO Honorable Mayor and Members of the City Council

SUBJECT 2026 Bond Election Website

The 2026 General Obligation Bond Election webpage provides voters with information about the City of Dallas public safety projects included in Proposition A. The website includes fact sheets about each of the planned capital projects for the proposed 2026 Bond program, if the Bond is adopted by voters; a series of Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ's) about the 2026 Bond; and the relationship of the proposed 2026 bond to the 2024 bond. All posted materials include a disclaimer that the information is provided by the City of Dallas Office of Bond and Construction Management for public information only. It does not advocate a position for or against any ballot proposition.

A link to the City Secretary's website is also included, as it contains other required informational resources about the 2026 bond and the 2026 bond election in English, Spanish, and Vietnamese. The 2026 bond website will be available Friday October 16, 2026, and will be accessible to the public and can be found via the BCM website, the URL www.DallasBond.com or QR following code:

A promotional banner for the 2026 Bond Election. The left side features a night-time photograph of the Dallas skyline with illuminated skyscrapers. The right side has a dark blue background with white text. The text reads: "2026 Bond Election November 3, 2026". Below this, it says: "Voters will decide on Proposition A, which asks whether the City of Dallas should issue $443 million in general obligation bonds for 5 public safety facility projects." At the bottom right, there is a blue button with white text that says "Learn About Proposition A".
