FALL FURNITURE FORECAST

Five News-Making Trends for Fall and Winter

MEDIUM PRICED-MODERN leads in the headlines this fall. If you are furnishing a home this fall you will find a wealth of well-styled furniture scaled to fit the houses we live in today. You will see an increasing use of natural woods and bleached mahogany.

REGENCY AND ADAPTATIONS with lovely pastel colors give a timeless feeling to a room with a reflection of the regal times of William IV. Its grandeur is adapted to the tempo of modern lives.

AMERICAN RUNS THE GAMUT from Puritan days to Classic revival, including the Victorian. Its greatest charm is in that freshness with accents from later periods—Victorian or Regency.

FRENCH PROVINCIALS are more formal, but at the same time are not really elaborate. The furniture is graceful leaning toward the more subtle refinements of court furniture.

ENGLISH 18TH CENTURY is still a mainstay, and will not be replaced in popularity for American homes. The Queen Anne and Georgian styles are reproduced in lighter scale than the originals were.

News of Women

MISS MARILYN RUDOLPH

MARRIAGE vows were solemnized Saturday night for Miss Jane Windrow and Lt. William Robert Houser at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Rollen J. Windrow, 5617 Surtis Avenue. Lieutenant Houser is the son of Mrs. Edward A. Houser, Maple Terrace.

The bride was married in the same gown worn by her sisters, Mrs. Lawson W. Magruder and Mrs. Joseph M. McLaughlin, in their weddings. Of ivory slipper satin, it was designed with a fitted bodice, long sleeves and a sweetheart neckline accented with princess lace. The bride's veil of ivory illusion, combined with princess lace from her mother's wedding dress, fell from a halo of princess lace. Her only jewelry was a string of pearls, a gift from her mother. She carried a white satin prayer book carried by her grandmother, mother and two sisters. Arranged on the prayer book were white orchids showered with satin streamers and Stephanotis.

Mrs. Lawrence J. Crouse of Kansas City, Mo., sister of the bridegroom, attended the bride as matron of honor and Miss Jean Windrow was her twin sister's maid of honor. Lieutenant Houser was attended by Jack S. Morgan, best man, and Morgan Hubbard.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Ostrum's twin daughters, Jenn, left, and Jane, right, will compliment Miss Betty Allen with a shower and buffet supper at 7 p.m. Tuesday at the home of their grandmother, Mrs. H. Ostrum, 5414 McComas. Miss Allen is the bride-elect of Joseph Garthud Roach Jr. The hostesses were graduated from the University of Texas in June.

TWO former classmates and sorority sisters at Southern Methodist University play leading roles in the bridal news this Sunday. They are Miss Jeanne Cole, who was married Saturday to Sgt. William D. Minnick, and Miss Marilyn Rudolph, whose engagement to Pfc. Jack H. Hunter has been revealed.

Miss Cole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Cole, 3313 Milton, became the bride of Sergeant Minnick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Minnick, Long Beach, Calif., Saturday at high noon in Long Beach. Only the immediate families were present.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Lt. Nathan L. Cole. She wore a sheer, white, street-length dress with an heirloom yoke of point lace. A semi-wreath of pearlized orange blossoms in her hair was joined by a bouquet of veiling. She carried white orchids encircled by bouvardia.

After a trip to Lake Arrowhead, the couple will be at home at Camp Cooke, Calif., where the bridegroom is stationed, having returned from seven and a half months overseas duty. He is a former student of Carnegie Institute of Technology, the University of Utah and UCLA. The bride attended Highland Park High School, TSCW and SMU, where she was a member of

How To Self-Ration Bread Sensibly So More Wheat Can Go Abroad

Deny Yourself—You Can Do It Safely— But Don't Deny Your Children Because They Need the Growth and Energy Provided by Good Bread

Hunger knows no boundary lines. Famine respects no flag. Death draws no color line.

Some countries have food. Some just don't have enough.

This is not a matter of race or creed or political belief.

It is this: shall those who have, share even their slender store?

The heart of America has spoken: we will share our wheat that millions in Europe and Asia shall not starve.

Already shipload after shipload has been sent. Even more is now on the high seas.

To do this, your government has ordered flour milling cut 25%. Naturally, this means less bread for America.

The logical thing to do, of course, is to buy less bread and cut down on the bread you eat.

Deny yourself bread, but don't deny your child. Your child is entitled to his just share of bread. In order to have the well-balanced diet his growing body demands.

Because good bread provides 8 elements the growing child needs for proper, normal development of body and mind. And, for energy, for work and play.

Illustrated below are the 8 ways Wonder Bread helps build strong bodies for children. Naturally, you want your child to have these 8 advantages.

You want your child to have his rightful share of Wonder Bread. And by practicing self-rationing, every father and mother can see to it that their children get it.

And, at the same time, play their part in saving bread so that more wheat can be sent abroad to halt the spread of famine there.

We repeat: practice self-rationing in your home. Deny yourself bread, but don't deny your child.

You'll be glad in your heart for doing it.

ADVENTURES IN GOOD EATING
DUNCAN HINES

Attributed by the Bell Institute, Inc. The onion is a versatile vegetable. Here's an interesting recipe for a luscious and appetizing meal fit for a king—all wrapped up in one onion!

To serve baked stuffed onions for six people, remove the outside of six large white onions and cook in boiling salted water for twenty minutes. Drain and cool. Cut a thin slice from the root end and discard. Remove the centers, leaving a shell approximately one-half inch thick. Set these shells to one side. Chop the removed centers.

Then mix together one-half pound ground beef, one-half pound ground chuck, beef, one teaspoon salt, one-fourth teaspoon black pepper and combine with the chopped centers. Stuff the onion shells with this mixture and place in buttered baking dish.

Then mix together one cup tomato juice, one-fourth teaspoon salt and one half cup butter and pour over the onions. The onions with one half cup butter and bread crumbs. Bake in oven at 350 degrees F. for one and one-half hours or until onions are tender and crumbs are brown.

Marriage Joins
Maida L. Coleman, Laurence L. Post

Mrs. Maida L. Coleman, Irving, and Laurence Leonard Post, Irving, were united in marriage Feb. 3 at the Little Chapel in the Woods, at Denton. The Rev. Jack Meyer was officiant, and traditional musical music was presented by Miss Ruth Newman, organist, and Miss Mary Ode, violinist.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. N. Coleman, Denton, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard M. Post, Tuscumbia, Ala.

Walter Kuyken gave his niece in marriage. She wore a white satin gown with lace, pearl-neck gloves, and a sweetheart neckline. Her trousseau consisted of bridal trousseau and a pair of white gloves. Her bouquet was of orchids.

Miss Mary Ann Yopp, Irving, was maid of honor and bridesmaid with Miss Mary Emma Wheeler, Denton, Ill. W. Hilton Jr., Irving, attended the bridegroom as best man. Wayne Hodges, Irving, and Joe O'Rourke, Irving, were ushers.

A reception in the ballroom on the Tenth campus followed the ceremony. Miss Joan Hinchbough of Los Angeles, Calif., cut the 3-tiered cake and Miss Beverly Carter of Texas City was at the head table. Following the reception, the newlyweds left for San Antonio for a wedding trip. The traveling Mrs. Post wore a dark-brown suit with matching accessories. The bride and bridesmaid will make their home in Irving. Mr. Post is a former student of SNU and his wife attended TCWU, where she was a member of the Modern Club.

BEAUTY SPOTS—The revival of beauty spots is as natural for leap year as petticoat frills. The tiny black patches point up pretty eyes, dimpled cheeks and shoulders. Bluffs are in hearts, gloves, triangles, crescents and stars. Called Suzie's Beauty Spots, they are in an assorted box of 100 patches.

EMILY POST

Conservative Use Of Tildes Preferred

It is recommended by the Tildes Institute that a reader sends its title letter, "You say that the tildes of a letter, if followed by a degree, should not be called 'Doctor' socially. Does this hold true for a Doctor of Medicine? Where do you obtain the authority to make such statements? I am not a Doctor of Philosophy but I am a returned and as such am close to many doctors. One moment of thought should convince you that I am a title, for which one has given the best years of his life, should be dropped in any occasion. The Doctors of Philosophy get little credit for the great work they do. They require the same respect we owe the Doctor of Medicine. Both titles are given the same respect. While a Doctor of Medicine is always called 'Doctor' socially, it is considered in best taste for the Doctor of Philosophy use his title, not professionally only. My personal authority on best taste in the use of titles was the late John Dwyer Prince, who as a philologist, visited only second by Miss Stuber. In addition to his many orders for nobility, he served New Jersey as Lieutenant Governor and Acting Governor. He was also American minister to Denmark and ambassador to Yugoslavia, in whose service he was called 'Professor' 'Governor' and 'Excellency' but in the 'Social Register' he listed his own name as 'Dwyer'.

Dear Mrs. Post: When letters or phrases are served in a cocktail, it is stuck with a pick, then where does your pick when there is no place for it in a dish tray? Answer: (1) You eat a cherry when the people of the glass drops it into your mouth. Since a large olive is too much of a mouthful, when the glass is drained, lift it out and eat it in two or three bits. (2) If impaled on a pick, you eat it when you please. If your glass is not yet empty, put it in an ash tray.

Little Theater Parties Slated

Several parties have been planned for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings by Dallasites who will attend "The Merry Miser," current production of the Dallas Little Theater, which will be presented those evenings at the Highland Park Junior High School.

Mrs. Charles B. Shaw will have a dinner party at her home, 6104 Swiss Avenue, each evening of the play's 3-night run.

Miss Betty Smith of Houston became the bride of Clinton W. Josey Jr. of Dallas Saturday evening at St. Paul's Chapel in Houston. They will make their home in Austin.

Vows were exchanged Saturday night in Houston by Miss Julia Gisel and William Everett Tipton of Dallas. After a short trip Mr. and Mrs. Tipton will be at home in Austin. (Gittings Photo.)

Mrs. Walter Albert Muller was Miss Gladys Diane Dealey before her marriage Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Sue Ragland Diggle, 5103 Swiss Avenue. (Gittings Photo.)

Miss Elizabeth Ann (Pam) Rowe will be married to Edward Irvin Gilbert Jr. Sept. 2 at the Highland Park Presbyterian Church. The betrothal has been revealed by the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Edward Wesley Hoag, 5110 Claridge Circle. (Laughhead Photo.)

Mrs. S. W. Batson entertained with a coffee Saturday at her home, 6864 Lakewood Boulevard, announcing the approaching marriage of her daughter, Miss Billie Louise Batson, above, to Paul Carson Petty. The wedding will be Sept. 23 at the Highland Baptist Church. (Laughhead Photo.)

Sept. 15 is the date set for the marriage of Miss Helen Madelon Myers to Richard A. Braesicke of Henderson. An announcement luncheon was given Saturday by the bride-elect's aunt, Mrs. Frank C. Oliver of Mexia. (Edward Dets Photo.)

The Dallas Morning News

SECTION 3 SUNDAY, AUGUST 21, 1934

News of Women

By JEAN SIMMONS

News this Sunday comes in pairs as the young folk do the two-step to the tune of Lohengrin.

Married Saturday were Miss Gladys Diane Dealey and Walter Albert Muller, Miss Betty Smith and Clinton W. Josey Jr., Miss Julia Gisel and William Everett Tipton, and Miss Betty Murray and Cecil G. Ewing.

Sepentine wriddings have been celebrated by Miss Elizabeth Ann (Pam) Rowe and Edward Irvin Gilbert Jr., Miss Helen Madelon Myers and Richard A. Braesicke, Miss Billie Louise Batson and Paul Carson Petty, and Miss Beverly Bohmfalk and Robert Alfrich Lang.

The Muller-Dealey wedding was solemnized at 8:30 p.m. Saturday at the home of Mrs. Sue Ragland Diggle, 5103 Swiss Avenue. Officiant was the Rt. Rev. W. J. Bender of Christ the King parish.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George William Dealey, 4207 San Carlos, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Roy F. Muller of Burlingame, Calif., and the late Mr. Muller.

Mr. Dealey gave his daughter in marriage. The bride's original gown was fashioned with a long bodice and sleeves of pure silk. The heavy skirt and train were of imported Illusion over satin. She carried a single white orchid on her prayer book.

Miss Gloria Marie Dealey was her sister's maid of honor and Mrs. William Maples was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Paul Horton and Miss Joan Dealey of Santa Monica, Calif. The attendants were dressed identically in pale pink taffeta frocks and they carried pink carnations.

Attending Mr. Muller as best man was Robert Samuel Dealey. Groomsmen included Patrick Lynch, William Maples and David Jerome Dealey of Santa Monica. Kruger Ragland ushered.

The nuptial music was given by Miss Nell O'Connell, harpist.

During a reception after the ceremony Mrs. Robert A. Long Jr. of Galveston presided at the cake. Punch was served by Mrs. Patrick Lynch and music was asked to plan the bride's book by Mrs. Joseph Fechtel.

The bride's table was covered by a cloth of hand-decorated pink tulle, while the cake and flowers were of a lighter shade of pink.

Mr. and Mrs. Muller will spend several days at the Broadmoor Hotel in Colorado Springs, before going on to Salt Lake City, Utah; Reno, Nev.; Lake Tahoe in California and San Francisco. They will make their home in Santa Barbara, Calif.

As the couple left the bride was wearing a navy-blue silk crepe suit with a matching picture hat and navy accessories.

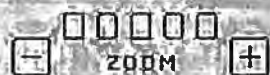

Mrs. Muller attended Highland Park and Meriel High Schools and the University of California at Santa Barbara, where she was chosen Queen of Hearts at the annual Queen of Hearts ball this last year. The bridegroom attended San Raphael Military Academy and is now a senior at the University of California at Santa Barbara. He belongs to Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. During World War II Mr. Muller served four years in the South Pacific with the Marine Corps.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were says: "No one should be misled by the claims that any dentifrice will cure or aid the cure of any diseased condition of the mouth.

Commissioner of Health of New York City

Dr. Shirley W. Wynne

"Those who need dental treatment should consult a dentist and be guided by his advice.

"It is important that the teeth and gums be examined not less than twice a year.

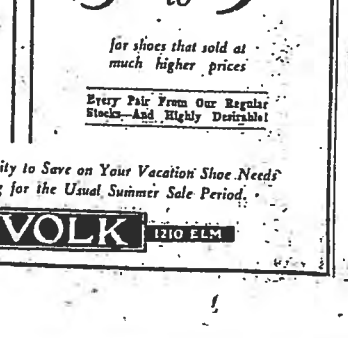

"The sole function of a dentifrice is to thoroughly cleanse the teeth and gums—all other claims are misleading."

Shirley W. Wynne

Member of American Medical Association and the New York Academy of Medicine. Recognized internationally as an authority on matters of public health.

Colgate's - of all dentifrices - cleans teeth most thoroughly

Colgate's - of all dentifrices - cleans teeth most thoroughly

SCIENTIFIC and exacting laboratory tests have proved that the cleaning properties of no other dentifrice are equal to those of Colgate's. That is because sluggish, pasty dentifrices do not possess the penetrating powers of Colgate's active foam in cleaning, dry crevices and fissures.

Agreeing with Dr. Wynne's opinion are such eminent authorities as Dr. Harper Chamberlin, Dean of School of Sciences, Catholic University, Washington; Dr. H. H. Banfield, Ph.D., University of Chicago; and many others of equally high standing who have been retained to render their expert opinions.

Be safe. Choose the dentifrice which has won the dental profession's unqualified approval. The dentifrice which, on dentist's advice, more people are using today than any other.

New Junior Federated Clubs Are Projected

New Life, Ideas and Energies Expected by Dallas Federation if Plans Successful

By MARY ALICE BROWN

NEW LIFE, ideas and energies are expected to be added to the Dallas Federation of Women's Clubs if plans now in the making are successful. A large number of new junior clubs, composed of young women between 18 and 30 years of age, will contribute in large measure to federated activities by next fall, if Mrs. Edward S. Harris and her committee are successful in the work recently inaugurated.

Letters have been sent to many federated clubs which the committee believes will be in a position to foster junior clubs. "There is a great need for more junior clubs in the city and county," Mrs. Harris, second vice-president and junior chairman, said. "At present there is a marked scarcity of junior clubs. The potential field for organization within this group is wide and one which should be stimulated with hope of raising social service and civic enterprises."

In line with organizing Junior Clubs is a policy being emphasized by the General Federation of Women's Clubs during its Jubilee year. Throughout the nation, clubs are making renewed efforts to enlarge membership, and thereby enlarge the strength of federated chapters.

Junior clubs are in the federation as the Junior Club-year Followers, Junior Oak Cliff Society of Fine Arts, Junior Sororities Club, Council of Jewish Juniors and Junior-Seniors Forum.

In line with organizing Junior Clubs, Mrs. Harris' committee also will encourage existing federated clubs and young women clubs which are not federated.

Gala Social Whirl Planned For Opera Season in Dallas

Buffet Supper and Dance to Be Given Monday Will Top Three-Day Schedule

William Lyons Phelps declares that "opera is Christmas for opera-lovers" and Dallas Metropolitan engagement opening Monday would seem to confirm his view, for the visit of the Metropolitan company this week will see a festive season second only to Christmas in the excitement of its music and in the gala which attend it.

These guests, opera parties, receptions, dinners and receptions with old and new friends will witness Dallas society in a round of gaiety for the next three days.

The following list of social events will be held during the week and to be given by the Dallas Grand Opera Association, Monday through Wednesday following the performance of La Traviata, which will be given at the Metropolitan opera house, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The following list of social events will be given by the Dallas Grand Opera Association, Monday through Wednesday following the performance of La Traviata, which will be given at the Metropolitan opera house, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Such and dinners for opera. These affairs will be given by the Dallas Grand Opera Association, Monday through Wednesday following the performance of La Traviata, which will be given at the Metropolitan opera house, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Vacation Wardrobe Demands Cool, Comfortable Clothes

Women of Sophisticated Taste Prefer Well-Tailored and Inconspicuous Togs

BY ELIZABETH KING SCOTT. Fashion is good taste but never obtrusive. There is about her a certain grace that makes it possible to travel without a great deal of luggage. The vacation wardrobe should be planned long before the season opens. It should be made up of simple, well-tailored, and inconspicuous clothes.
