

Mobile Technology for People On the Go

At UnitedHealthcare, we're constantly developing innovative ways for people to get faster access to the health information they need. That's why we're proud to announce our latest mobile applications and online connections, DocGPS™, myuhc.com® mobile, Quicken Health Expense Tracker® and OptimizeMe™.

DocGPS is an app that combines a search function with GPS mapping to help BlackBerry®, Android™ or iPhone® users find UnitedHealth Premium® designation program providers and local care.

- Locates nearby in-network doctors, clinics and hospitals by specific health plan
- Searches on 23 types of health care facilities and 58 types of physician specialties
- Uses global positioning system (GPS) to locate and map locations
- Auto dial feature
- DocGPS 2.0 is available as a free download on the iPhone, select BlackBerry devices (Curve™ 8900, Storm™ 9530 and Bold™ 9000) and smart phones powered by Google's Android operating system v1.5 and later

myuhc.com mobile gives members access to the most frequently requested information and tools on our member website.

- Provider search (GPS-enabled)
- Benefits summary
- Account balances
- Recent claims
- ID card view (with fax and e-mail functions)

It's mobile browser-based, not an app, but it works with most BlackBerry smartphones, Android phones, and the iPhone. Members still have access to the full myuhc.com website, if needed.

Members can also add these new features and capabilities:

- Pharmacy tools (e.g., cost estimator and prescription information)
- Health and Wellness tools and information
- Voice recognition and navigation
