

The Traffic Safety and Field Operations Divisions have been improving the safety of our streets by installing “zebra” speed bumps in areas that have a high vehicle, bicycle, and pedestrian use.

“Zebras” provide a visual separation of areas used for different purposes.

Here is an example of a bicycle lane with “zebras” separating it from the vehicular traffic lanes.

