114th Congress, 1st Session

Key Issues

- Budget
 - Sequestration is back for FY 2016, putting pressure on all discretionary spending, especially core local government programs

Key Issues

- Tax
 - Congress will take a hard look at corporate tax reform; comprehensive tax reform; for cities: tax exemption for municipal bonds is the key issue.
 - Extenders: New Markets Tax Credits, Work Opportunity Tax Credit, sales tax deduction, etc.

114th Congress, 1st Session

Key Issues

- Transportation
 - Highways & Transit
 - Aviation
 - Passenger/High Speed Rail
- Infrastructure
 - Water Resources Development Act ["WRDA"]
 - Water & Wastewater

General Statements of City's Legislative Focus

- Oppose any federal action that:
 - Erodes the home rule authority of municipalities,
 - Imposes unfunded mandates; or
 - Constrains the ability of cities to allocate resources to locally-determined priorities.

General Statements of City's Legislative Focus

- Support legislation that:
 - Creates opportunities for individuals and businesses to thrive and prosper,
 - Provides an equitable distribution of federal funds; and
 - Addresses the concerns and issues confronting large metropolitan cities, including urban transportation, crime reduction, affordable housing and healthy neighborhoods.

General Statements of City's Legislative Focus

- Unfunded Mandates
 - Oppose unfunded federal mandates.
- Deficit Reduction
 - Support a balanced approach to deficit reduction; reduction should not disproportionately harm national defense or core local government programs, nor should it delay much-needed investments in infrastructure.

Specific Issues

- Transportation & Infrastructure
- Public Safety & Criminal Justice
- Education/After School Care/Child nutrition/Early Childhood Education
- Economic Development
- Tax Issues
 - Marketplace Fairness Act
 - Municipal Bonds
- Funding for Core Local Government Programs
- Local Control
- Travel/Tourism/Arts & Culture
- Clean Air/Climate Change
- Trinity River Corridor

Support

- Reauthorization of highway, transit and aviation programs
- Reauthorization of New Markets Tax Credit, Brownfields and other economic development programs, with an eye to GrowSouth and other City initiatives and programs
- Sales tax fairness (Marketplace Fairness Act)

Support

- Full funding of core local government grant programs
- Programs to increase international travel and tourism
- Programs that promote art and culture
- Programs that support education, after school care, child nutrition, and early childhood education

Oppose

- Capping or repealing the tax exemption for municipal bonds
- The Internet Tax Freedom Act in general and repeal of the “Texas carve out” in particular
- Preemption of local authority (public rights-of-way, zoning, taxing)
- Mandatory Social Security for local governments

Monitor

- Congressional and FCC action on telecommunication policy
 - House Energy & Commerce studying comprehensive rewrite of Communications Act
- Various EPA rulemakings (Such as Waters of the United States, ozone, greenhouse gases)
- SEC implementation of Dodd-Frank re: municipal finance
- Consumer Finance Protection Bureau re: payday lending rules
- All grant opportunities of potential interest to the City

Next Steps

- On 25 February 2015 Agenda for consideration
- 7 – 11 March NLC Congressional Cities Conference Washington, D.C.
