(C) The districts shall be geographically compact, to the extent possible, and composed of contiguous territory.

(D) The reconfiguration of districts shall be neutral as to incumbents or potential candidates.

(E) Communities of interest shall be placed in a single district and attempts should be made to avoid splitting neighborhoods, where possible without violating the other requirements.

(5) City council members may not have contact, directly or indirectly, with a redistricting commission member, or with redistricting commission staff, with respect to redistricting, except by testimony in an open meeting. Redistricting commission members may not engage in any discussions, directly or indirectly, regarding redistricting or the work of the redistricting commission with city council members, except during an open meeting or by written communication given to the entire redistricting commission. (6) Upon completion of its work, the redistricting commission shall file its recommended districting plan with the mayor. The mayor shall present the recommended plan to the city council at its next meeting. The city council shall adopt the plan as submitted or shall modify and adopt the plan, in either case within 45 days of receipt by the mayor. Any modification or change to the plan must be made in open session at a city council meeting, with a written explanation of the need for the modification or change and a copy of the proposed map with the modification or change made available to the public 72 hours before a vote, and the proposed plan must be approved by a vote of three-fourths of the members of the city council. If final [neither of such] action[s] is not taken by the city council within 45 days after the plan was presented to the mayor, then the recommended plan of the redistricting commission will become the final districting plan for the city.

(7[4]) The districting plan developed in accordance with this section must be implemented at the next general election of the city council conducted at least 90 days following the date the final districting plan becomes effective for the city.

CHAPTER VIII. MUNICIPAL COURTS

SEC. 8. PAYMENT OF OBLIGATIONS.

The chief financial officer [~~city controller~~] shall examine payrolls, bills, and other claims and demands against the city and shall issue no warrant for payment unless the city controller finds that the claim is in proper form, and duly approved; that it is justly and legally due and payable; that an appropriation has been made therefor which has not been exhausted or that the payment has been otherwise legally authorized; and that there is money in the city treasury to make payment. The chief financial officer [~~city controller~~] may investigate any claim and for that purpose may summon any officer, agent or person to be examined by the chief financial officer [~~city controller~~] upon oath or affirmation relative thereto, which oath or affirmation the chief financial officer [~~city controller~~] may administer. If the chief financial officer [~~city controller~~] knowingly or negligently issues a warrant on the treasury authorizing payment of any item for which no appropriation has been made, or for the payment of which there is not a sufficient balance in the proper appropriation, or which is otherwise contrary to law or ordinance, the chief financial officer [~~city controller~~] and the chief financial officer's [~~city controller's~~] sureties shall be individually liable to the city for the amount thereof.

The appeal to the trial board does not suspend the execution of the order being appealed. The trial board, by majority vote, or the administrative law judge may either sustain, reverse, modify, or amend the disciplinary action as is determined just and equitable, provided that the disciplinary action must be sustained if a reasonable person could have taken the same disciplinary action against the employee.

Any failure by the city secretary to furnish a copy of the ordinance [~~resolution~~] to the tax assessor and collector, or any failure by the tax assessor and collector to indicate the pendency of such a proceeding upon a tax statement, shall not affect the validity of the proceeding under this chapter, nor of any assessment thereafter levied pursuant to this chapter.

SEC. 11. STATE LAW ADOPTED AS TO WATER AND SEWER SYSTEM IMPROVEMENTS.

All of the powers conferred by [~~Chapter 402, Subchapter D of the Texas Local Government Code, as amended, and other~~] applicable state laws, authorizing cities to improve their waterworks and sanitary sewer systems and to make assessments therefor, are hereby adopted in all respects insofar as they may apply to the City of Dallas. SEC. 11. FINANCIAL INTEREST OF EMPLOYEE OR OFFICER PROHIBITED.

(a) No city official [~~officer~~] or employee shall have any financial interest, direct or indirect, in any contract with the city, or be financially interested, directly or indirectly, in the sale to the city of any land, materials, supplies or services, except on behalf of the city as a city official [~~an officer~~] or employee. SUBJECT

An ordinance ordering a special election to be held in the City of Dallas on Tuesday, November 4, 2014, for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters of the City, proposed amendments to the Dallas City Charter - Financing: No cost consideration to the City

BACKGROUND

This item is on the addendum to allow council members additional time to finalize and approve charter ballot language to place on election order ordinance, which will be distributed at the meeting.

Article 11, Section 5 of the Texas Constitution states, in part, "Cities having more than five thousand (5000) inhabitants may, by a majority vote of the qualified voters of said city, at an election held for that purpose, adopt or amend their charters... Furthermore, no city charter shall be altered, amended or repealed oftener than every two years." Chapter II, Section 3 of the Dallas City Charter, states, "At intervals of not more than 10 years (first interval to occur not more than 10 years after adoption of this section), the Charter shall be reviewed by a commission appointed by the council."

The Dallas City Charter was last amended in a special election held November 8, 2005. To meet the 10-year charter review deadline in 2015, the City Council appointed a Charter Review Commission to review and recommend changes to the Dallas City Charter. Proposed changes are the result of input from the general public, City Council, Charter Review Commission, as well as city staff.

BACKGROUND (Continued)

The Uniform Election date in which to hold the special election for a charter amendment is Tuesday, November 4, 2014. Section 3.005(c) of the Texas Election Code states in part that "an election to be held on the date of the general election for state and county officers...be ordered not later than the 78th day before election day." The election may be called at any time as the Texas Elections Code does not provide for an "official date to first order an election." The last (78th) day to order the election is Monday, August 18, 2014.

Due to unforeseen circumstances and as has always occurred in the past, changes are expected in the near future to both election day/early voting polling locations as well as the early voting schedule. For instance, changes as a result of State House Plan 358 (in which was adopted by Dallas County on September 24, 2013), added approximately 27 new precincts; therefore requiring the assignment of additional election day polling locations. Those additional precincts are currently listed in Exhibit A (Election Day Polling Locations) as "To Be Determined (TBD)" and will be updated as soon as the information is provided by Dallas County. Collin and Denton Counties have no changes at this time. However, any required changes will be presented for formal approval as soon as notifications are received from Dallas, Collin and Denton Counties.

PRIOR ACTION/REVIEW (COUNCIL, BOARDS, COMMISSIONS)

This item has no prior action.

FISCAL INFORMATION
